

DC Recycles Day

November 15, 2002

A PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WHEREAS, the District of Columbia has established a recycling goal of 45 percent; and

WHEREAS, this is an opportunity for the District to jump start its recycling initiative in all District facilities as well as in the residential and commercial sectors; and

WHEREAS, participating in America Recycles Day is one way to raise the awareness about the need to reduce, reuse and recycle; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme is: "Make Everyday DC Recycles Day";

NOW, THEREFORE, I THE MAYOR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, do hereby proclaim Friday, November 15, 2002, as "DC RECYCLES DAY" in Washington, D.C. and call upon the residents and employees of this great city to join me in making a personal commitment to recycle.

Anthony A. Williams
Mayor, District of Columbia